

2010

GRADUATION / FINAL PRESENTATION

of

The Atlanta Center for Creative Inquiry, Inc.
featuring students from
Lithonia High School & B.E Mays High School

Theme: Architecture and Stewardship
Responsibility of Architecture for the Enrichment of Communities

Saturday, May 15, 2010

Awards Ceremony Guest Speaker
Dr. William Carpenter, FAIA

A nationally recognized architect and educator. He is a founder of Lightroom a nationally award winning design firm in Decatur, Ga. specializing in architecture and new media projects.

3pm - 5:00 pm • Student Presentations
6pm - 8:00 pm • Awards Ceremony & Celebration

College of Architecture, GaTech
245 Fourth Street
Atlanta, GA 30332

ACCI provides opportunities for inner-city youth to be exposed to, participate in and be introduced to creativity, design, art, architecture, real estate, development, construction and entrepreneurship. The Center is operated through partnerships that give students an opportunity to find out how projects are created, developed and constructed.

Thank you to our Sponsors:

Black & Veatch
AIA Atlanta
Breakthrough, Inc
Turner Associates
BBDO
Greater Atlanta Economic Alliance

McCarthy Building Co.
JW Robinson & Assoc.
Broaden/Levittco, EPA
HARTSMITH, Inc
Marx & Smith
Parscon
Volcanocore

Contact: ACCI
P.O. Box 7158
Atlanta, GA 30357
www.acci-atl.org

RSVP: Brenda K. Johnson
478.914.5902
BKJohnson@kybur-co.com